

The Funni Farm Transparency & Customer Trust Statement

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Our Commitment

The Funni Farm is committed to operating with honesty, transparency, and integrity in every aspect of our business.

Product Information

We strive to provide clear product descriptions, ingredient information, batch identification, and other details to help customers make informed purchasing decisions.

Laboratory Testing

Where applicable, we support our products with independent third-party laboratory testing and make Certificates of Analysis (COAs) available when possible.

Open Communication

We welcome customer questions and feedback. If we make a mistake, we will work in good faith to address it fairly and professionally.

Continuous Improvement

Customer feedback helps us improve our products, packaging, website, and customer service. We regularly review our practices to better serve our customers.
